

16th CL Davis Diagnostic Pathology Symposium: Dermatopathology

October 14, 2016, Friday, 8am- 5:50pm

Greensboro, North Carolina

in conjunction with the 59th Annual AAVLD annual meeting

The Charles Louis Davis DVM Foundation will be conducting an eight-hour continuing education symposium entitled "Diagnostic Dermatopathology" on October 14, 2016. Course Director Matti Kiupel (Michigan State University) and invited guest lecturers Elizabeth Mauldin and Charles Bradley (both University of Pennsylvania). The following topics will be covered: basics of dermatopathology, epidermal biology and disorders of cornification, the canine cutaneous microbiome and atopic dermatitis, lupus and related interface disorders, inflammatory and non-inflammatory alopecia, clinical case correlates with discussion. Didactic lectures will be combined with audience participation to result in an engrossing day-long seminar. CL Davis is an approved CE provider. Don't miss out on what promises to be another exciting C.L. Davis/AAVLD co-sponsored symposium.

Tuition of $150 includes refreshments, CD of presentations and continuing education credits. The tuition fee will be waived for the winners of the travel award. Please Pre-register to guarantee receipt of materials. Registration is through CL Davis and is separate from meeting registration fees.

Additional information and registration materials are available at the CL Davis Foundation Web site: <http://www.cldavis.org> or call 847-367-4359.
