2012 Foundation Auction!

Recognition

Thanks to ALL OF YOU who continually support the AAVLD Foundation Auction and make it a huge success each year. This year the auction will again be one of the highlights of the annual AAVLD meeting, with professional North Carolina auctioneer Will Thompson.

The mission of the AAVLD Foundation:

- Promote Recruitment
- Education and retention of the next generation of veterinary diagnosticians
- Reward excellence in veterinary diagnostic medicine

Please support the AAVLD Foundation by donating an item(s) from your laboratory.

Foundation accomplishments:

A primary focus of the Foundation in recent years has been to increase the number of trainee travel awards to assist our future veterinary laboratory diagnosticians to attend/make presentations at our annual meeting. AAVLD is partnering with the Center for Public and Corporate Veterinary Medicine (CPCVM) to send selected DVM students to our meeting in 2012. The AAVLD Foundation Endowment has supported so far:

- 11 graduate student trainee travel awards plus DVM student travel awards to Greensboro this year
